Tuition and fees are charged according to the number of credit hours carried by the student. For regular, Outreach College Continuing Education and Summer Session tuition schedules, refer to the following page. Auditors (those enrolled in a course for no credit) must pay the same tuition and fees as students enrolled for credit. For tuition purposes only, a full-time student is any student enrolled for 12 or more credit hours.

The regular tuition to be charged is determined by the degree status of the student and not by the level of the courses taken. For example, students who have earned a baccalaureate degree will be charged graduate tuition, except for students admitted for a second baccalaureate degree. Students admitted to the law or medical school will be charged the stated tuition for that school.

Medical, law, graduate nursing, or graduate business students concurrently enrolled in the Graduate Division must pay the stated tuition for the medical school, law school, nursing school, or business college.

Returned Checks

Payments tendered to UH Mānoa or any department therein, and returned from the maker's bank for any reason (e.g., insufficient funds, closed bank account, incorrect bank information) will result in a $25 charge and a hold will be placed on your account. DO NOT place a STOP PAYMENT on checks. A stop payment on a check is considered a returned check and is not acknowledged as an official drop from courses or withdrawal from UH Mānoa.

Special Examination

A fee of $10 is assessed.

Student Transcripts

Regular processing is $5 per copy, and rush processing is $15 per copy.

Payment of Tuition and Fees

All tuition and fees must be paid before registration or change of registration is official. Full payment for tuition and fees must be made or be enrolled in the MyUH installment payment plan by the end of the 10th calendar day of the semester.

UH Mānoa offers a 4 month, 3 month or 2 month installment payment plan for the fall and spring terms only. The non-refundable enrollment fee is $30 per student per semester per plan to participate. Detailed information is available at myuhportal.hawaii.edu/myuh/IPP_FINAL.pdf.

All checks or money orders should be made payable to University of Hawai'i for the exact amount due. The student's UH number should be written on the memo section (bottom left) of the check. University grants and scholarships will be posted to the student's account.

Financial Obligations

Students who have not met their financial obligations (traffic fines, library fines, locker fees, lab breakage charges, transcript fees, loans, rental contracts, etc.) to the satisfaction of UH Mānoa may be denied a variety of enrollment services including registration, withdrawal, and transcripts. Notation of the financial obligation may appear on transcripts.

Enrollment at UH Mānoa signifies consent to, and acceptance of all policies and procedures governing enrollment, including financial liability. Students who fail to remit payment when due, agree to pay UH Mānoa all reasonable costs for collection, to include collection agency, attorney's, and court fees.

Copies of the delinquent financial obligations policy and procedures are available for inspection at the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Students and the UH Mānoa Cashier's Office.

Refunds of Tuition and Fees

Regular Tuition and Fees

Tuition and special course fees are refunded as indicated below:

- A 100 percent refund of tuition for complete withdrawal or decrease in credits made on or before the 10th calendar day of the semester, unless otherwise stipulated by federal regulations.
- A 50 percent refund of tuition for complete withdrawal or decrease in credits made between the 11th to the 21st calendar days of the semester, unless otherwise stipulated by federal regulations.

- No refunds of tuition for complete withdrawal or decrease in credits from the 22nd calendar day of the semester (start of the 4th week of instruction), unless otherwise stipulated by federal regulations.

Student activity fees are only refundable before the first day of instruction, or if you completely withdraw from all UH campuses during the 100 percent period.

Penalties apply even if payment for tuition and fees has not been made at the time registration status is changed.

After students have secured all required approvals, the withdrawal or change in registration must be processed according to instructions in the Schedule of Classes/UH Mānoa Registration Homepage. In no case shall a refund be made when a student fails to follow these instructions within two weeks of the date of change in registration (e.g., withdrawal, change in status, or change in tuition rate).

Refunds are made by the UH Mānoa Cashier's Office after the procedures for complete withdrawal from UH Mānoa have been followed. See the "Undergraduate Education" and "Graduate Education" sections of this Catalog.

Federal regulations mandate a refund policy for all students who are receiving federal financial aid and who process a complete withdrawal before 60% of the semester has elapsed. A detailed refund policy is available in the Schedule of Classes/UH Mānoa Registration Homepage.

If you paid by cash or check, your refund will be deposited directly into your designated eRefund account or mailed to your current address on file at UH Mānoa. Students should verify and update their mailing address and permanent address, as all refund checks will be mailed to their address in the following priority: 1) Mailing Address, and 2) Permanent Address (if mailing address is null or expired). Mailing address corrections can be made online through MyUH, and permanent address corrections made by mailing the Student Data Change Form www.hawaii.edu/admrec/chgform.pdf or completing it in-person at the Admissions and Records Information Counter, Queen Lili'uokalani Center for Student Services, Room 001.

UH Mānoa offers students the option to have refunds direct deposited into a bank account. View information on eRefunds at www.hawaii.edu/news/docs/eRefunds.pdf.

Outreach College Extension and Summer Sessions Tuition and Fees

See the Outreach College website at www.outreach.hawaii.edu for refund information.

Residency for Tuition Purposes

Students who do not qualify on the first day of instruction as bona fide residents of the state of Hawai'i for tuition purposes pay the nonresident tuition. An official determination of residency status is made at the time of application. Applicants may be required to provide documentation to verify residency status. Once classified as a nonresident, students continue to be so classified during their enrollment at UH Mānoa until they present satisfactory evidence to the residency officer that proves residency. For definition of Hawai'i residency for tuition purposes, statutory exemptions, etc., refer to the "Campus Policies" section.

WICHE Programs

Bachman 112

Honolulu, HI 96822
Tel: (808) 956-6625

UH Mānoa participates in three exchange programs of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE).

Through the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE) program, a limited number of students from participating states who are not residents of Hawai'i may enroll at UH Mānoa in designated programs at a reduced level tuition (plus other fees that are paid by all students). WUE students do not pay the higher charge for nonresident tuition. (Hawai'i residents may enroll under the same terms in designated institutions and programs in other participating states.) Hawai'i residents may obtain information about WUE programs in other states from the WICHE Certifying Officer for Hawai'i (see the location above); from participating institutions; or from the WICHE Student Exchange Program, 3035 Center Green Drive, Boulder, CO 80301; tel: (303) 541-0214; email: info-sep@wiche.edu.

The School of Architecture, the William S. Richardson School of Law, the Library and Information Science Program (located in the Department of Information and Computer Sciences), the John A. Burns School of Medicine and the School of Nursing and Dental Hygiene participate in the WICHE-administered Professional Student Exchange Program (PSEP). PSEP allows legal residents of the states of Alaska, Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming (states without a professional school in one or more of the above fields) to enjoy Hawai'i-resident status for admission and tuition purposes at UH Mānoa. Students who receive certification from their home states receive preferential admission consideration and, if accepted, are charged Hawai'i-resident tuition rates. To be certified for PSEP, students must write to the WICHE certifying officer in their home state for the proper application forms at least one year in advance. State eligibility requirements vary, and the number of students funded by each state depends upon appropriations by the state's legislature. For addresses of state certifying officers, contact the Director, Student Exchange Program, Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, 3035 Center Green Drive, Boulder, CO 80301; tel. (303) 541-0214; email: info-sep@wiche.edu.

UH Mānoa also participates in the WICHE Regional Graduate Programs agreement. Under this arrangement, legal residents of the 13 western states listed above will be charged resident tuition if they meet requirements for admission in specific graduate programs. Approved fields are East Asian languages and literatures (MA and PhD), natural resources and environmental management (MS and PhD), tropical medicine in the biomedical sciences (MS and PhD), Asian theater and dance (MA, MFA, and PhD), tropical entomology (MS and PhD), tropical plant and soil sciences (MS and PhD), oceanography (MS and PhD), second language acquisition (PhD), and Asian and comparative philosophy (MA and PhD). For detailed information, contact the appropriate graduate chair or see the respective field of study listings at the Graduate Division office.

Financial Aid

Scholarships, grants, loans, and work-study programs are provided to eligible students by the federal and state governments and private donors. Some programs are based on merit or academic records, and others on demonstrated financial need.

UH Mānoa encourages students who believe they may not be able to enroll or continue their education because they lack financial resources to apply for financial aid through the Financial Aid Services office.

The federal government is a major source of grants, loans, and work-study funds to undergraduate and graduate students. With the enactment of the Higher Education Amendment of 1992, applicants are required to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Assistance (FAFSA) form to the federal processor for the determination of eligibility for federal, state, and institutional program funds.

If you have been selected for verification, you must submit federal tax forms, a verification worksheet, and other forms as required by Financial Aid Services. Students interested in applying for financial aid may visit our website at www.island.hawaii.edu/finaid/ for financial aid information and forms.

The offer of aid may include funds from public and private sources, depending on the applicant's residency, degree of need, date of file completion, major, class level, and availability of funds. Recipients are advised to read their rights and responsibilities, including the description of the type of funds awarded and disbursement procedures on the financial aid website.

Deadlines

The priority date is March 1; however, applications will be accepted after that date with awards offered contingent on available funds.

A financial aid package based on demonstrated financial need may include a long-term, low-interest federal or state loan. Repayment of these loans begins after a student graduates, withdraws from school, or drops to less than half-time.

Federal Perkins Loan. This loan is available to students with financial need. FAFSA required. Contact the Financial Aid Services office for details.

Nursing Student Loan. This federal loan is awarded only to students in the School of Nursing and Dental Hygiene who demonstrate financial need. FAFSA required.

Federal Family Educational Loans. These loans, the Federal Stafford Loan (subsidized and unsubsidized) the Federal PLUS Loans for parents of undergraduate dependent students and the Federal Graduate PLUS loan for graduate students are available through banks and other lending institutions. Interest accrued may be subsidized by the federal government, depending on the degree of financial need. FAFSA required. Contact the Financial Aid Services office for details.

State Higher Education Loan. This loan is available to bona fide residents of the state of Hawai'i who demonstrate financial need. FAFSA required.

Short-Term, Emergency Loans. These institutional loans are designed to meet temporary or emergency financial needs of registered students. Contact the Financial Aid Services office, the Graduate Student Organization, or specific departments.

Other Loans. Students are encouraged to contact the reference librarian at the nearest library for other publications listing private loans for students. For additional information on these and other loan programs, check with the Financial Aid Services office, UH Foundation, or specific departments.

Work-Study

The Federal Work-Study (FWS) Program enables students to meet part of their financial need through part-time employment. The program is funded by the federal government with matching funds from UH Mānoa. Employment may be on or off campus with nonprofit organizations. FWS earnings are not calculated as income when applying for financial aid.

Generally, students are provided the work-study program as a part of their financial aid package. The Center for Career Development and Student Employment coordinates the work-study program. Job opportunities are available in many fields and require skills ranging from entry-level to highly technical. Community service jobs are also available, including tutoring positions in the America Reads and Counts Challenge. For further information, see the "Student Life" section of this Catalog.

Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress for Recipients of Financial Aid

Satisfactory Academic Progress. To be eligible for federal and state aid programs, you must meet all three Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards regardless of whether you have received financial aid previously.

GPA Standard. Maintain minimum GPA standards. Undergraduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 (Refer to the Catalog or handbooks for students enrolled in the William S. Richardson School of Law, and the Graduate Division for specific GPA requirements for your program of study). Students on academic disqualification are not eligible for financial aid.

Pass Rate Standard. Students must pass at least 75% of the total institutional credit hours attempted in their degree level at UH Mānoa. Measurement of each student's pass rate will occur at the completion of each spring semester.

Maximum Credit Hour Standard. Students must complete their undergraduate degree with less than 186 attempted credit hours (e.g., 150% above the 124 minimum credits for a baccalaureate degree). All courses registered for at UH Mānoa are included in the excessive hour calculation.

Graduate Assistantships

UH Mānoa offers assistantships to graduates of accredited institutions of higher learning who have satisfactory scholastic records, an adequate undergraduate background in the major program, and evidence of a high level of English proficiency. Graduate assistants, chosen on a competitive basis, serve as part-time teaching or research assistants. All graduate assistants must be registered for and must complete at least 6 credit hours of degree-related course work each semester while holding the assistantship. Moreover, they must maintain at least a 3.0 GPA to continue in the position. The maximum course load typically is 9 credit hours. The period of service for each year for teaching assistants is typically from two weeks prior to the beginning of instruction through spring commencement; research assistants normally serve for 11 months. Graduate assistants are awarded tuition waivers, but they are not exempt from the general fees, special course fees listed in the Catalog, and the Graduate Student Organization fee. Applications should be sent to the chair of the appropriate department before February 1. Each application must be accompanied by three letters of recommendation from former professors or employers.

Information on assistantships and application forms may be requested from the chair of the appropriate graduate program.

Applicants are advised that UH Mānoa has joined the Council of Graduate Schools in approving the following resolution:

Acceptance of an offer of financial aid (such as a graduate scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, or assistantship) for the next academic year by an actual or prospective graduate student completes an agreement that both student and graduate school expect to honor. In those instances in which the student accepts the offer before April 15 and subsequently desires to withdraw, the student may submit in writing a resignation of the appointment at any time through April 15. However, an acceptance given or left in force after April 15 commits the student not to accept another offer without first obtaining a written release from the institution to which a commitment has been made. Similarly, an offer by an institution after April 15 is conditional on presentation by the student of the written release from any previously accepted offer.

Graduate Fellowships

The Graduate Division has available general information on fellowship competitions open to American graduate students and administered by outside foundations or agencies. For application purposes, it is important to distinguish between (1) those awards made directly by the sponsoring agency to individual students and administered by an institution, and (2) those awards made by the sponsoring agency to an institution to be awarded, in turn, to students for study at the specific institution.

Awards in the first category are generally made by national organizations and allow students to choose their institution of affiliation. Applications are submitted by students to the sponsor, usually in early fall preceding the year graduate study is to begin. The National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowships program is an example.

Awards in the second category, which vary in source from federal to local, include a large number of programs. At UH Mānoa, nominations for these awards are generally made by the graduate programs that are eligible. In some cases (e.g., Fulbright awards), the student may apply through the Graduate Division. Students are urged to exercise their initiative to explore the various possibilities. Initial inquiries should be directed to the chair of the program.

Information on fellowships is available at Spalding 354D.
